A time to weep

Foreword

"to everything there is a season a time for every purpose . . ." a time for . . .
beginning; classes and friends teachers; lectures and grades clubs; activities with a common interest football; combat on the gridiron pep rallies; cheerleaders and fans marching band; parades and ballgames basketball; tournament champs chorus; voices in concert prom; a gala evening aspirations; to realize a dream graduation; threshold of a new beginning

Guiding influence . . .
what it is all about;
library research,
homework,
tedious hours of study,
a communication of ideas,
an expression of feelings, enrichment.

Administrators

RIGHT: Working with the Lawrence County Board of Education as its superintendent is the job of William A. Cheek.

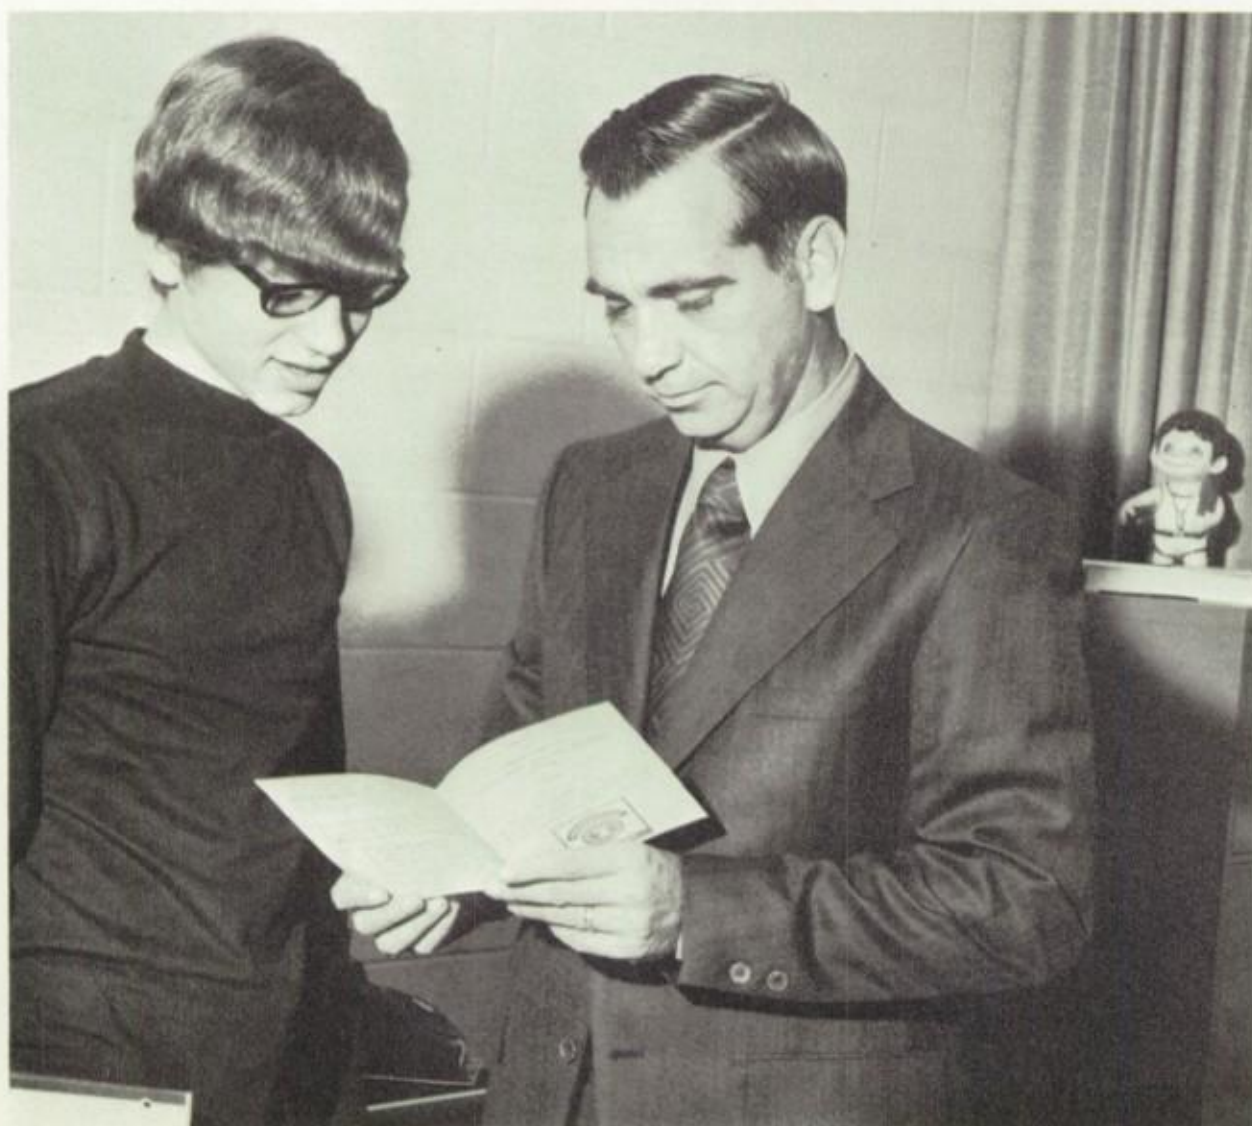

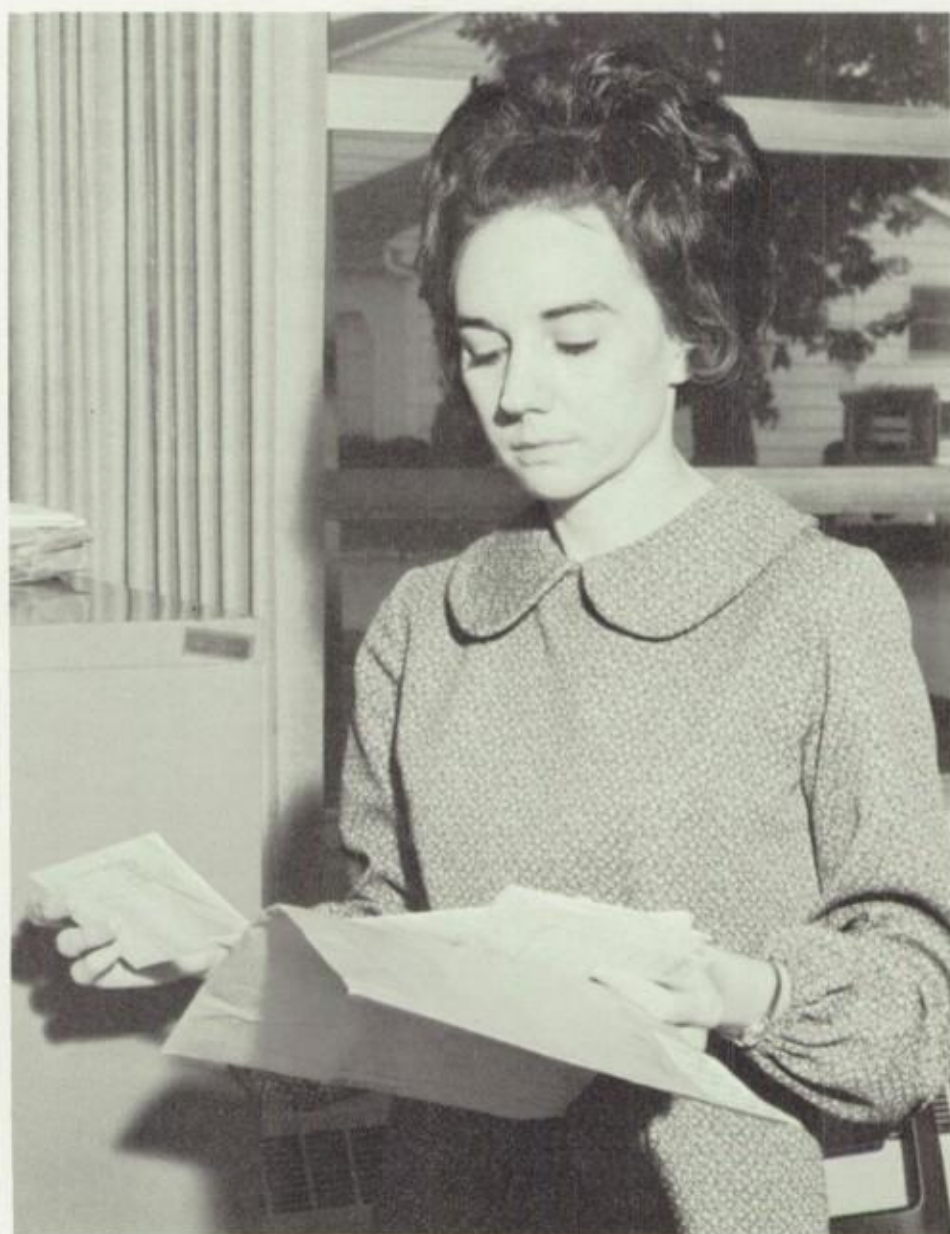

Mr. Cheek's competence and progressive attitude have been instrumental in the betterment of Lawrence County schools.

FAR RIGHT: Serving in dual capacities as both LHS principal and assistant superintendent, Mr. Stan Radjunas has proven to be a valuable asset to our school system.

BOTTOM: Responsible for formulating school policies and selecting school personnel is the Lawrence County Board of Education whose members are: SEATED—Lucille Graham, Superintendent Cheek, Jack Hardin—STANDING—Luke Varney, Sr., Edgar Boggs, and Earl Elswick.

Administrators and Personnel

ABOVE RIGHT: As secretary in the main office, Miss Moore's duties are to take care of all school correspondence, record students' grade averages on cumulative records and other routine secretarial duties.

The entire team placed fifth in over-all competition.

In Memoriam

A TRUE TEACHER

When the last diploma's granted
And the race takes its degree,
And the worth-while things are graven
In the Hall of History;

When the worlds' great benefactors Gather at the Masters call,
There will be one more deserving,
One more worthy than them all.

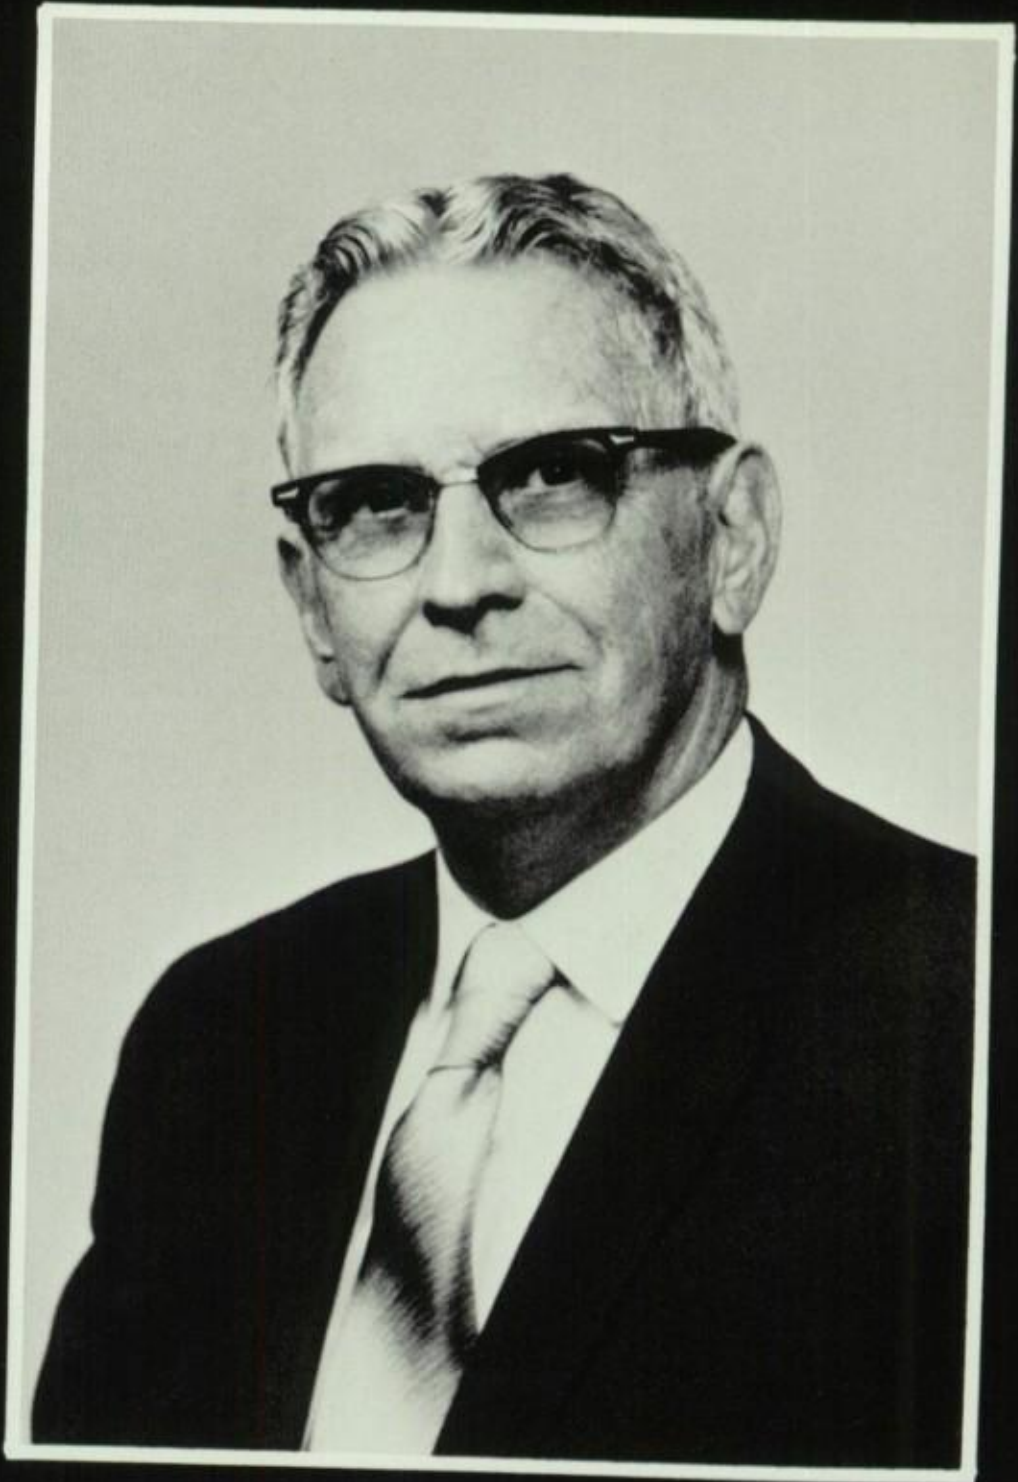

When the deeds of men are measured
And their services are weighed,
And the Master of all masters Hands to each his final grade,

Then the warrior, merchant, banker, Each shall take his separate place
'Round about a central figure,
The most honored of our race.

Then the ones who fought for power
And the ones who strove for self Will discover that the greatest Was the one who offered self;

Then the teacher, true and faithful,
Will be greeted from the Throne
By the greatest of all Teachers;
Ye shall reap as ye have sown!
